Due to declining availability and rapidly rising prices of South American Mahogany, we are adding Spanish Cedar to our wood choices. This wood has a higher decay resistance and is less expensive than South American Mahogany and we feel it is an attractive alternative. It looks quite similar to Mahogany and like Mahogany is harder and denser than Redwood.

Please call for prices on larger sizes and alternative wood species.

* Measured at widest point.

** Prices effective 10 March 2014 and subject to change without notice.

SHIPPING

Shipping unless otherwise arranged is via U.P.S. ground service. If you wish, we can inform you of packing and shipping charges before shipment.

CUSTOM ORDERS

We are happy to turn your custom profiles for a small setup charge. We can also turn our stock finials in custom woods and/or sizes. A 50% deposit is required on all custom orders.
